

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

ESTABLISHED 1826, AND INCORPORATED BY SPECIAL ACT OF PARLIAMENT, 1849.

GLASGOW (Head Office), 39 ST. VINCENT PLACE.

THOMAS HILL, Esq. of Merrylee.
ALEX. PAUL, Esq., Manufacturer.
M. E. ROBINOW, Esq., Merchant.
S. THOMSON, Esq., Insurance Broker.

Medical Adviser—DR. J. G. FLEMING.

Auditor—AND. MACEWAN, ESQ.

EXISTING BUSINESS AT 31ST DECEMBER, 1865.

Capital Sums Assured,	£4,772,487, 14s. 1d.
Accumulated Funds,	1,117,767, 7s. 9d.
Annual Income,	190,734, 2s. 6d.

TEN THOUSAND SIX HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-EIGHT POLICIES.

THIS OFFICE being purely MUTUAL, the WHOLE PROFITS BELONG TO THE ASSURED. The Society has endeavoured to place its Rates and Rules on the most equitable and liberal footing; and its affairs are administered by Directors whose interests are identical with those of the Assured.

The Additions declared by the Society as at 31st December, 1853, and 1860, have been so high as at the rate of £1, 15s. for each year, for every £100 assured, not only on the original sum in the Policy, but also on Additions, which are accumulated at each Septennial Investigation. And the practice of the Society is to provide for Members dying between the Investigations, Additions at the rate of 1½ per cent, for each year, calculated not only on the original sum, but also on the Additions accumulated at the previous Investigation.

In addition to the above, the Society's arrangements, the following special advantages are hoped, are calculated to show the general benefit of the Society's arrangements, the following special advantages.

1st. Advantages to which the attention of Advanced Lives is more particularly invited.

2nd. Advantages having reference to Young Lives.

3rd. The favourable Cash Values allowed for Surrender of Additions as compared with those of other Offices.

4th. The moderate Additional Rates charged by the Society for TERMINATING or REDEEMING Premiums; those of some other Offices being, in many cases, from Fifty to upwards of One Hundred per Cent. more.

5th. The Society's system of Minimum Premiums.

1st. Advantages to which the attention of Advanced Lives is more particularly requested.

The rates charged by this Society at advanced ages are greatly less than those of other Offices generally; the SCOTTISH AMICABLE rate at age 60 being so much as 18 per cent. less than what is charged by some other Offices. The Directors of the Society undoubtedly exercise great caution in accepting such Lives to see that they are very select, but this being attended to, it is considered, in reference to the rates charged by the Society, coupled with the system of allocation of Additions, that in terms of the result of the careful investigations into the mortality of select lives, made by the Manager at various times, the rates at all ages, say at 20, 40, and 60, are duly proportioned according to the risks run. It has therefore not been seen proper to raise the rates at Advanced Ages. And it does not require to be pointed out that while these rates continue, it is to an Office such as this that select Advanced Lives should make their Proposals.

The following are the Annual Life Premiums for £100 at ages 50 to 60:

50	£ s. d.	£ s. d.	56	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
	4 9 1	3 10 9		5 8 10	4 10 0
51	4 12 0	3 13 7	57	5 12 11	4 14 0
52	4 15 0	3 16 3	58	5 17 1	4 18 1
53	4 18 2	3 19 6	59	6 1 7	5 2 6
54	5 1 6	4 2 9	60	6 6 4	5 7 2
55	5 5 1	4 6 4

2nd. Advantages having reference to Young Lives.

By the rules of the Society the Assured are entitled, after five years' continuous residence in this country, to travel and reside in any part of the World without payment of extra Premium. Looking to the increasing facilities and requirements for travelling, what an advantage may it be to a young man to be possessed of a Policy under which, after five years' residence in this country, he might go anywhere without payment of extra Premium.

The Table of Rates for EDUCATION ASSURANCE, introduced by this Society, provides a means, at a very trifling cost, of securing for children, in the event of the death of their fathers, Annuities till they reach the age of eighteen. It is believed that few fathers with young children, who consider the small Premiums required to secure so invaluable a boon, will not desire to leave for their widows, or those who may come to have charge of their children, such an assistance as a Policy of this nature. This Table will be found at the end of this Directory.

3rd. The favourable Cash Values allowed for Surrender of Additions, as compared with those of other Offices.

In regard to these values, it may be simply said that this Office gives the full value which it sets aside to meet the Additions, while other Offices make a deduction of from 10 to 20 per cent., if not more.

4th. The moderate Additional Rates charged by the Society for TERMINATING or REDEEMING Premiums; those of some other Offices being from Fifty to upwards of One Hundred per Cent. more.

There can be no doubt that it is for the interest of that intelligent and discriminating class who are likely to desire that their Premiums should soon terminate, to inquire into the rates charged by this Office as compared with those of other Offices. The main cause of the difference is probably that the SCOTTISH AMICABLE assumes in the calculation a rate of 4 per cent. interest, while many other Offices maintain that no higher a rate than 3 per cent. should be had in view.

A Table will be found at the end of this Directory where the additional Annual Premiums to redeem Life Premiums of £1, by payments for certain periods, are given. By means of this Table calculations may be made in reference to any Annual Life Premiums payable to the Society.

5th. The Society's System of Minimum Premiums.

Under this system Premiums are reduced to the "Minimum," or least possible, amount from the commencement, by applying to this purpose an estimated Bonus of $1\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. Any ascertained variation from this rate, the lowest experienced by the Society, forms an addition to, or deduction from, the amount assured on its becoming a claim. The System of Minimum Premiums—believed to be the most economical adaptation of Life Assurance in use in any office—was introduced by this Society to meet the convenience of that numerous class who desire to obtain, for such sums as they can devote from their income, the largest amount of immediate Assurance without subjecting themselves to a subsequent increase of their payments.

This system of Minimum Premiums has also been applied by the Society to Joint Life or Partnership Assurances.

Tables of Rates under these classes will be found at the end of this Directory.

At the Annual Meeting of the Proprietors, held on the 26th October, 1865—Bernard Hall, Esq., Chairman of the Company, in the Chair—the Directors' Report for the year stated:—

That the FIRE PREMIUMS FOR THE YEAR amounted to.....	£115,285
That 529 LIFE POLICIES were issued, insuring.....	804,777
That the NEW LIFE PREMIUMS amounted to.....	8,058
That the LIFE INCOME was.....	27,756
And that upwards of 57 PER CENT. of the ENTIRE NET PREMIUMS had been added to the Life Fund.
That the SUBSCRIBED CAPITAL amounted to.....	£1,883,220
That the PAID-UP CAPITAL was.....	188,322
And that the RESERVE FUNDS amount to.....	147,688

The LIFE BONUS of this Company averaged £46 per Cent. of the Premiums paid, in some cases rising to £65, 70, and even 75 per cent. Substantial benefits have therefore been conferred on its Assured, and as the Life Liabilities are valued on the principle of net Premiums, assuming only 8 per cent. interest—the outside expenses chargeable to the Life Department for the General management of the Company being specially limited by the Deed of Settlement to 10 per cent of the net Life Income—there is every reason to expect equally good Bonuses in the future.

Home and Foreign Fire and Life Insurances at Rates as Moderate as those of other First-Class Offices.

PREFACE.

THE Publishers beg to acknowledge with much pleasure the many tokens of satisfaction which their new Plan of Glasgow elicited last year, and which has been carefully revised down to date, making it as perfect and complete as possible. . They have also to intimate that several additional lists appear in the Directory for the first time—among which may be mentioned the Customs' Tariff, Excise Duties, Government Annuities, Post Office Annuities and Insurances, and Foreign and Colonial Moneys and Exchanges—very valuable to a mercantile community.

The Directory is also printed on a heavier and better quality of Paper, bringing out in greater distinctness the generally neat character of the type hitherto in use, which the Publishers trust will give general satisfaction. The Publishers also beg to announce that the size of the Directory has been considerably increased, owing to a large accession of new Names, new Streets, and other important matter, extending to upwards of 50 pages of letterpress over the previous Volume.

Thanking the Public for past favours, the Publishers beg to solicit a continuance of their support and confidence.

ALMANAC AND TIDE TABLE.

FROM JUNE 1866, TILL JUNE, 1867.

The daily rising and falling of the waters of the ocean are, in general, denominated Tides. The rising is called the Flood, or Flux; and when it ceases to rise, High Water. The falling is called the Ebb, or Reflux; and when it ceases to fall, it is said to be Low Water. The interval between the times of High and Low Water is called a Tide.

The Tides are produced by the attraction of the sun and moon, principally that of the latter object. The cohesion of fluids being much less than that of solid bodies, they more easily yield to the power of gravity; in consequence of which the waters immediately below the moon are drawn up in a protuberance, producing a full tide, or what is commonly called High Water, at the spot where it happens. According to this theory, you would imagine that we should have full tide only once in twenty-four hours, that is, every time that we were below the moon; while we find that we have two tides in the course of twenty-four hours, and that it is High Water with us and with our antipodes at the same time.

This opposite tide is rather more difficult to explain than that which is drawn up beneath the moon. In order to render the question more simple, let us suppose the earth to be everywhere covered by the ocean, as in the following figure:

M is the moon, A B C D the earth. Now, the waters on the surface of the earth about A being more attracted than in any other part, will be elevated, the attraction of the moon at B and C being less; but still it will be greater there than at D, which is the part most distant from the moon.

The body of the earth will therefore be drawn away from the waters at D, leaving a protuberance similar to that at A: so that the tide, A, is produced by the waters receding from the earth, and the tide, D, by the earth receding from the waters.

The influence of the sun on the tides is less than that of the moon; for, observe, that the tides rise in consequence of the moon attracting one part of the waters more forcibly than another part. It is this inequality of attraction which produces full and ebb tides. Now the distance of the sun is so great, that the whole globe of the earth is comparatively but as a point; and the difference of its attraction for that part of the waters most under its influence, and that part least subject to it, is but trifling. No part of the waters will be much elevated above, or much depressed below, their general surface by its action. The sun has, however, a considerable effect on the tides; and increases or diminishes them as it acts in conjunction with, or in opposition to, the moon.

According to the calculations of the celebrated La Place, in his Mécanique Céleste the mean force of the sun in raising the tides is to the mean force of the moon as 1 to $1\frac{1}{2}$; and Emerson, in page 428, second edition of his Treatise on Fluxions, calculates the height of the solar tide to be 1.68 feet, and the height by the moon's influence to be 7.28 feet; consequently the height of their joint force to be 8.91 feet. The height here calculated is supposed to be at such places where the sun and moon are vertical, and also in the equinoctial. In places at a distance from the equator, the height will be less as the latitude is greater. Further, their height will also be less according to the sun and moon's declination from the equator.

From what has already been remarked regarding the tides, it is obvious that, when the moon is in Perigee, or at her nearest distance from the earth, she attracts strongest, and therefore raises the tides most. The contrary happens when she is in Apogee, or at her greatest distance from the earth, because of her weaker attraction. At new moon, when she is in conjunction with the sun, and at full moon, when they are in opposition, the tides are raised by the joint attraction of both luminaries, and therefore will produce the highest, or what are called Spring Tides. And Neap Tides are produced by the difference of their force when in quadrature. The Spring Tides take place about two days after full moon, and the Neap Tides about two days after the first and last quarter.

In consequence of the sun being nearer the earth at the beginning of the year than at any other time, his attraction will then be most powerful on the tides, and should the moon happen to be in Perigee, their joint effects will produce the greatest Spring Tides.

The mean duration of the ebb and flow is about 12 H. 25 M., that is, half the lunar day of 24 H. 50 M., the period elapsing between successive returns of the moon to the same point of the meridian. Thus the sea in every place undergoes a flux and reflux as often as the moon passes the meridian, whether superior or inferior of the place; that is to say, twice in 24 H. 50 M.

The following Tide Table is constructed on strict scientific principles, from the very accurate Tide Tables of J. W. Lublock, Esq., London (the Tide Table in the Nautical Almanac for 1857 is also calculated from the same Tables), and will be found to be as correct as the position of our river, with regard to its locality, the influence of the winds, and other diversified circumstances, either hasten or retard its natural current. Hence the time of the Tide by observation may not at all times correspond precisely with the time found in the Table.

These tables are calculated for mean time, or the time shown by a well-regulated clock, reckoning from noon of each day. The Moon's phases are calculated to civil time. The civil day begins at midnight.

TIDE TABLE OF SOME OF THE PRINCIPAL PORTS IN ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, AND IRELAND.

The times of High Water at full and change of the moon, from which the following equations are calculated, are reckoned from apparent noon. They represent the actual times of High Water when the moon passes the meridian at the same time as the sun, or the intervals between the times of transit of the moon and the times of High Water on full and change days. With which, and the equation of time, the times of High Water at all the Ports here given will be obtained by addition, as here annexed.

ECLIPSES OF THE SUN, &c., 1867.

In the year 1867 there will be two eclipses of the Sun, and two of the Moon.

I. An annular Eclipse of the Sun, March 6th, visible at Greenwich. Begins on the earth generally, March 6th, 7 h. 17 m. A.M., mean time at Greenwich, in long. $14^{\circ} 59'$ W. of Greenwich, and lat. $12^{\circ} 87'$ N.; ends 0 h. 16 m. P.M., in long. $82^{\circ} 40'$ E., and lat. $46^{\circ} 45'$ N. Greatest phase 6th March, 9 h. 32 m. A.M.

II. A partial Eclipse of the Moon, March 20th, visible at Greenwich. First contact with the penumbra, March 20th, 6 h. 5 m. A.M. at Greenwich; last contact with the penumbra, March 20th, 11 h. 32 m. A.M. at Greenwich.

III. A total Eclipse of the Sun, August 29th, visible at Greenwich. Begins on the earth generally, August 29th, 10 h. 53 m. A.M., mean time at Greenwich, in long. $70^{\circ} 29'$ W., and lat. $15^{\circ} 0'$ S.; and ends at 3 h. 38 m. P.M. in long. $27^{\circ} 0'$ E., and lat. $46^{\circ} 26'$ S.

IV. A partial Eclipse of the Moon, September 13th, visible at Greenwich. First contact with the penumbra, September 13th, 9 h. 43 m. P.M.; last contact with the penumbra, September 14th, 8 h. 9 m. A.M.

NOTICE.

The latitude of Glasgow is $55^{\circ} 52'$, and the longitude $4^{\circ} 16'$ west of Greenwich, consequently there should be 17 minutes of difference of time between the clocks of Glasgow and the clocks of Greenwich, but the clocks of Glasgow are now adjusted to Greenwich mean time.

EXEMPLIFICATION AND CONSTRUCTION OF THE FOLLOWING TABLES.

TO FIND THE TIME OF HIGH WATER AT ANY PLACE IN THE GENERAL TIDE TABLE.

RULE.—To the time of high water at Glasgow on the given day, add or subtract the correction for the required place as stated in the table, and the time of high water will be obtained. When the sum of the correction, and of the time of high water in the table exceeds 12 hours, subtract 12 hours, and the remainder will be the time of high water in the morning or evening of the given day, as the column denotes; when the sum of the former quantities is less than 12 hours, this sum will be the time of high water required in the evening of the preceding day, or the morning of the given day, according as the column is marked morning or evening. Or the morning and the evening tides may be found thus:—If the morning tide be sought, and the sum be above 12 hours, take the time from Glasgow for the preceding evening, to which add the correction for the required place; from the sum subtract 12 hours, and the remainder is the morning tide at the place required. If the evening tide is wanted, and the sum exceed 12 hours, take the Glasgow morning tide for the given day, to which apply the correction for the required place, from the sum subtract 12 hours, and the remainder is the evening tide at the place required.

By the Act 28 & 29 Vict. c. 98, British compounded spirits, not more than 11 per cent. overproof, as defined by the Act 23 & 24 Vict. c. 114, sect. 148, may, if compounded from Excise-duty-paid spirits, be warehoused, upon drawback of the duties paid, in Customs or Excise warehouses, for exportation or ships' stores, or for home consumption (on payment of the duty on plain British spirits, and of 8d. a gallon); and spirits of wine, if rectified from Excise-duty-paid spirits, may be warehoused upon drawback of the duties paid in Customs warehouses, for exportation or ships' stores, but not for home consumption.

Allowance is now made for the natural waste of spirits in warehouse; it being provided by the Act 27 Vict., c. 12, sect. 7, that duty shall be charged only on the actual quantity of spirits delivered from bond, unless there be reasonable ground for believing that the deficiency either in whole or in part has been the result of fraud.

[Bills bearing to be drawn out of United Kingdom are to be deemed Foreign Bills so drawn, though they may in reality be drawn in United Kingdom (17 and 18 Vict. c. 83, § 4). A person taking such bill must get the whole set stamped, otherwise he cannot make it available, ib. § 6. This applies only to bills drawn within and payable out of United Kingdom].

MARRIAGE CONTRACT. The leading head under which marriage contracts are chargeable is SETTLEMENT. Instruments, containing settlements of lands, property, or other thing, besides settlement of money or stock, are chargeable with duty in respect of such, as if contained in a separate deed. A marriage contract may therefore be liable to different duties. If definite sums, and stocks, are settled so as to give an interest to any extent which shall certainly take effect, these are liable to the ad valorem Settlement Duty. If an annuity is provided to widows or others, it is liable to the Bond of Annuity Duty. Obligations to pay sums to widow, as for mournings, are liable to the ad valorem Bond Duty. All settlements of property, or other matters not liable to specific duty, will be covered by one general deed duty, over and above the other duties. An obligation by husband, to pay sums to trustees for children, if any, would be liable to the Bond Duty, not Settlement Duty, being contingent. The stamp duty of 5s., imposed by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, on a certificate of marriage, and on a certificate of reception of the Holy Sacrament, is repealed by the 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 21.

[Heritors' mandates to vote and act at parochial boards are exempt (8 and 9 Vict. c. 83, § 22).]

[The proxy and voting-paper duty of 1d. may be denoted by adhesive stamp, which must be duly cancelled by the person signing the instrument (24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 27; 27 Vict. c. 18, § 14).]

RECEIPTS for money amounting to £2 or upwards, 1d.

RECEIPTS or acknowledgments for money paid or deposited in any bank, or in the hands of any banker on allotments of shares, or for calls on scrip or shares, in any joint-stock or other company, or proposed company, wheresoever such may be, or in any loan or proposed loan raised or to be raised by or for any foreign or colonial government, state, corporation, or company, are liable to the duty upon Receipts (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, and 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 16).

The following provisions as to what shall be deemed a receipt, and the exemptions from receipt duty by 55 Geo. III. c. 184, are still in force:—

Any writing given upon payment of money, whether signed or not, shall be a receipt if it shall import that any money, debt, or demand, amounting to £2 or upwards, has been paid or settled. Like documents given upon payment by bills, drafts, promissory notes, or other securities, are also receipts.

[According to decisions, a simple acknowledgment of money in loan, or of the correctness of a debt, or of a deposit of money, is not liable to duty, either as receipt or promissory note. The judges held it essential to render a receipt liable to duty that something formerly due had been discharged. On this principle a receipt for money as a donation to a religious or charitable purpose, not being any thing formerly due, would not be liable to duty. The Board of Inland Revenue have intimated that they are to regard such receipts as exempted.]

Among the exemptions from receipt duty are—

Receipts written on promissory notes, bills, drafts, or orders for the payment of money, duly stamped. Receipts written on any bond, mortgage, or other security, or any deed, duly stamped, acknowledging receipt of the consideration money, or of any principal money, interest, or annuity.

[Receipts for money passing between master and servant are not regarded as liable; but this would not apply to travellers who travelled for several houses.

Receipts for donations are not considered liable, if the donation is made and the money paid at once.]

[Stamps may be impressed or affixed. Where adhesive stamps are affixed, the grantor is required to cancel the stamps by writing, stamping, or impressing in ink, his name or initials on them (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, §§ 3, 4, and 5; 24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 83).]

And if the same shall exceed £100, then for every £100, and fractional part of £100, - - - 5s.

[Bonds, debentures, policies of insurance, covenants or contracts settled or agreed to be settled, shall be deemed settlements of the principal sums of money named in them. But on policies of insurance, unless provision be made for keeping them up, the duty charged shall be only on their value. For the mode of ascertaining the value of foreign and colonial stocks and currencies, &c., see the Act 27 Vict. c. 18, sec. 18.]

All such deeds which contain any settlement of lands, property, or other thing besides the settlement of such money or stock, shall be chargeable with such further duty as any separate deed containing such settlement of lands, property, or other thing, would have been chargeable with, exclusive of the progressive duty.

And where there is more than one such deed chargeable with such duty exceeding £1 15s., one of them only shall be charged with the ad valorem duty; and where any settlement shall be made in pursuance of previous articles chargeable with and having paid such duty exceeding £1 15s., it is not chargeable with the ad valorem duty; and the deeds not chargeable with the ad valorem duty shall be charged with the duty to which they are liable under any more general description in the stamp-schedules; and on the whole being produced, duly executed and stamped, the latter shall also be stamped with a particular stamp denoting the payment of the ad valorem duty.

INVENTORY DUTY.

I. PERSONAL ESTATE:—

Every person who shall, as executor or otherwise, enter upon possession or management of personal or movable estate in Scotland of any deceased person, in whole or in part, shall, within six months, exhibit upon oath in the Commissary Court an inventory, duly stamped, of all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased. The inventory and testamentary writings left by the deceased, if any, shall be recorded in the books of the court. (48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 88.)

Inventories and relative testamentary writings are to be given up and recorded in, and confirmations granted by, the Commissary Court of the county wherein the deceased died domiciled; and in the case of persons dying furth of Scotland, or without any known domicile, having personal property in Scotland, the Commissary Court of Edinburgh. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 8 and 8.)

Oaths and affirmations on inventories of personal estates, to be given up and recorded in any Commissary Court, may be taken before the commissary or his depute, the commissary-clerk or his depute, any commissioner appointed by the commissary, or any magistrate or Justice of the peace within the United Kingdom or the Colonies, or any British consul. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, § 11.)

If the deceased person died domiciled in Scotland, it shall be competent to include in the inventory of the personal estate in Scotland, the personal estate in England and Ireland. The estate in England and Ireland shall be separately stated in the inventory, and the inventory shall be stamped according to the entire value of the estate situated within the United Kingdom. If confirmation be required, the domicile must be proved to be in Scotland; and to give title to the English and Irish property, the confirmation must be sealed in the Principal Probate Court in England and the Probate Court in Dublin. (21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, and 13.)

The provisions of the act are merely permissive. It is therefore still competent to pay duty on the estate in Scotland, and probate or administration duty in respect of the estate in England and Ireland. In the case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom having personal estate in Scotland, this mode of paying the duty must be followed, as there is no provision for payment of duty, in respect of the personal estate in England or Ireland, on the inventory, or confirmation.

If there be any omission in the inventory inferring payment of further duty, an additional inventory is required to be exhibited by 48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; and § 40 provides that it shall specify the value of the estate and effects in the former inventory. By 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8, such additional inventory shall be chargeable only with such duty as, with the duty charged upon the former duly stamped inventory, shall make up the full duty, in respect of the total amount of all the estate and effects of the deceased specified in the additional and former inventory. If the estate be over-estimated, or something improperly included, an inventory on a stamp corresponding to the value must be exhibited, and the original inventory will be allowed on affidavit as a spoiled stamp, within six months of the recording of the second inventory.

Personal estate which a person dying shall dispose of by will, under authority to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty (28 Vict. c. 15, § 4). The duties are to be charged on the property, in respect of which they are payable, and to be paid by the trustees or owners to the executor.

By the 27 and 28 Vict. c. 56, §§ 4, 5, British ships at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, are chargeable with the duties, unless where the whole estate of the deceased shall not exceed £100.

Indian Government Promissory Notes, and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government Promissory Notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased (28 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship or share of a ship belonging to a person deceased, registered in the United Kingdom, although such ship may at the time of the decease have been at sea or out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port where registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

"The inventory and additional inventory of any person deceased, required to be exhibited and recorded in Scotland, shall be stamped with duty according to the value of the property at the time they shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued to that time; and the duty, or deficient duty, according to such value and proceeds, and interest thereon at the rate of five per cent., shall be a debt to her Majesty by the person making oath to said inventory and additional inventory, and his heirs and successors; and if such inventory and additional inventory shall not be exhibited and recorded, the inventory duty on all the personal or movable estate and effects of the deceased, and interest thereon at the rate of five per cent. from the expiry of six months after the death of such deceased person, shall be a debt to her Majesty by the person who shall intermit with such personal or movable estate and effects, or any part thereof, and his heirs and successors." (28 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 5.)

II. MONEY SECURED ON HERITAGE, &c.

The Act 28 Vict. c. 15, sect. 6, declared that money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and money secured by Scotch bonds in favour of heirs and assignees, excluding executors, should be chargeable with inventory, probate, or administration duty.

The Act 28 & 24 Vict. c. 80, was passed to regulate the levying and collection of this duty. Section 1 describes the property liable to inventory duty under the Act of 28 Vict. c. 15; and § 8 further explains what shall be subject to duty. Section 9 of the Act 28 and 24 Vict. c. 80, repeals the Act 28 Vict. c. 15, § 6, in so far as regards probate and administration duty being chargeable in respect of the property, so that now in all circumstances such property is liable to inventory duty. Section 1 is in these terms:—

"All money secured on heritable property in Scotland, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, excluding executors, and all money secured by Scottish bonds and other instruments, the rights to which shall be taken excluding executors, constituting the succession, or part of the succession, of any person who shall have died on or after the 8d April, 1860, shall be liable to inventory duty."

Two modes of paying the duty are provided (28 and 24 Vict. c. 80, §§ 8 and 4):—

1. By a "special inventory" (according to a form in the Act) of the property, to be lodged with the Solicitor of Inland Revenue at Edinburgh, stamped according to the amount of property. The inventory stamp shall be testate or intestate according as the stamp on the inventory of the personal estate shall denote the testate or intestate rate of duty.

2. By adding the amount of the property to the inventory of the personal estate, and paying stamp duty upon the aggregate amount.

This second mode will generally be most advantageous for the tax payer; and will be followed when the interest in the heritable and movable estate is the same, or when the heir and executor can arrange as to payment of the duty. As to both modes, it is declared that the duty is ultimately to be borne by the parties proportionally according to their interests in the property.

The 5th § of 28 and 24 Vict. c. 80, provides, that the inventory duty shall be payable on the property liable according to its value at the time the inventory shall be sworn to, including the proceeds accrued to that time.

It will be observed that the inventory duty on money secured on heritage, &c., is limited to such property constituting the succession of a person who shall have died on or after the 8th April, 1860 (28 and 24 Vict. c. 80, § 1); but the provision for valuing property at the date of the affidavit to the inventory, and including the proceeds to that time, is retrospective and universal in its operation, applying to all inventories without regard to the date of death.

III. GENERAL OBSERVATIONS.

In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and money secured on heritage, &c., duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory recorded in the Commissary Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property in Scotland, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the money secured on the heritage, &c., and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom, leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country. For probate and administration duty, debts and money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased, on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of deceased, within the jurisdiction of the Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death (25 Vict. c. 22, § 89).

RETURN OF INVENTORY DUTY:

The inventory duty and probate and administration duty are paid on the whole personal property, without deduction of debts; but the Act 5 and 6 Vict. c. 79, § 23, provides for a return being given on proof of the constitution and payment of the debts. This return must be claimed within three years; but the time will be prolonged on application to the Board of Inland Revenue. A return of the duty paid on heritable securities may also be made in certain circumstances. (See 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80, §§ 4 and 6.) No return will be granted in respect of a voluntary debt due from a person dying after 28th June, 1861, expressed to be payable on the death of such person, or payable under an instrument which shall not have been bona fide delivered to the donee three months before the death of such person. (24 and 25 Vict. c. 92, § 8).

LEGACY DUTY.

Legacies, Annuities, Residues, &c.

	Duty per cent.
To children or their descendants, or lineal ancestors, - - - -	£1 0
Brother or sister, or descendant, - - - -	3 0
Uncle or aunt, or their descendant, - - - -	5 0
Grand uncle or aunt, or descendant, - - - -	6 0
All other relations or strangers, - - - -	10 0

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the movable estate, or out of, or charged upon the heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any estate which he has power to dispose of, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's heritable estate: also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of testamentary disposition, or upon partial or total intestacy: and also for the clear residue of moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any heritable estate, directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by will or testamentary instrument.

Annuities commencing on the death of persons after 19th May, 1858, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); and annuities commencing previous to that date, by the table, annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, which shall together amount to £20, each shall be charged with duty.

[Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duties will be obtained gratis, on application at the Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.]

SUCCESSION DUTY (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51). This duty commenced on the death of persons after the 19th May, 1858, and seems to be imposed on all property, heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy, imposed by the Legacy Duty Act.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoings (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to the Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritable securities is chargeable as personalty (§ 1).

RATES OF SUCCESSION DUTY.

Lineal issue or lineal ancestor of the predecessor, £1 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the predecessor and their descendants, £3 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of the father or mother of the predecessor and their descendants, £5 per cent.

Brothers and sisters of a grandfather or grandmother of the predecessor and their descendants, £6 per cent.

Any other person, £10 per cent.

The husband or wife of the predecessor is not chargeable with duty (§ 18), and if the successor's husband or wife shall be of nearer consanguinity than the successor, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship (§ 11).

Exemptions from the succession duty:

1. Successions from the same predecessor, passing on any death, not amounting in principal value to £100 (§ 18). 2. Any succession of less than £20 in whole (ib.). 3. Legacies and personal property charged with legacy duty, in respect of the same acquisition (ib.).

[Forms of the accounts may be obtained at the Legacy Duty Office, Edinburgh, and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.]

DISCOUNT ON THE PURCHASE OF STAMPS.

Purchasers of stamps (except receipt, labels for medicines, newspapers, and postage-stamps) at London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, under the value of £10 each, but to the value of £30 or upwards in whole, are allowed discount at the rate of 30s. per cent. (12 and 13 Vict. c. 80).

To persons who at one time shall produce at the office of Inland Revenue in London or Dublin, paper to be stamped with, or shall purchase at the office in London, Edinburgh, or Dublin, stamps to the amount of £2 or upwards, or of any distributor of stamps at any place not within ten miles from the said offices, stamps to the amount of £1 or upwards, denoting any duty not exceeding 1s. on Bills of Exchange, Drafts or Orders, or Promissory Notes, or Stamps, for denoting the duty of one penny (except postage and customs stamps), an allowance shall be made of tencepence for every 20s. of the duties denoted by such stamps—(23 and 24 Vict. c. 111, § 8). No person selling such stamps shall charge for the paper whereon the same are impressed.

REGULATIONS AS TO EXCHANGING SPOILED STAMPS.

The Solicitor's office, No. 5, in the Inland Revenue Office, is open for the allowance of spoiled stamps every Tuesday and Thursday, from 12 noon to 2 P.M. The distributors at the following places also receive spoiled stamps for allowance: Aberdeen, Ayr, Banff, Cupar-Fife, Dumfries, Dundee, Elgin, Forfar, Glasgow, Greenock, Inverness, Peebles, Perth, Stirling, and Tain.

Forms of affidavits are kept by the Solicitor and the above distributors; and claimants may attend at the Solicitor's office, and have the affidavits filled up and taken; or they may get copies of the forms, and take the oath before a Justice of the Peace, and afterwards lodge the affidavits and stamps with any of the above officers. If the claim be admitted, a ticket is issued, stating that application is to be made for the new stamps after Thursday se'ennight, and within six weeks from the date of the ticket. If not made within that time the claim will be forfeited.

The stamps, if belonging to persons in Edinburgh, or within ten miles of it, must be presented for allowance within six months after being spoiled in the case of unexecuted instruments. If the stamps belong to persons beyond that distance, they must be presented within six months in the former, and twelve months in the latter case.

Bills and notes delivered to payees, or negotiated or issued in any way, and bills accepted or tendered for acceptance, cannot be exchanged, unless a new bill be produced, in all respects the same, excepting the correction of the error.

As to the exchange of sea policies of insurance. See 54 Geo. III. cap. 188.

Unsigned instruments are allowed, if inadvertently spoiled; signed, if void in law from the beginning; from error or mistake, unfit for the purpose originally intended; from death or refusal to sign of any person whose signature is necessary; from want of the signature of some necessary party; from refusal to act under, or from non-acceptance; or if the transaction be carried through by another instrument duly stamped. (See 58 Geo. III. cap. 108.) In the case of transfers of stock signed by seller alone, and other instruments by one party, new deeds must be produced to the proper officer, who, as to transfers, is instructed to certify in what particulars they differ from those spoiled.

Stamps of a different description may be obtained for any stamp spoiled if it be of the value of £6 or upwards. Application for this purpose to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue should be lodged with the affidavit. The Commissioners, by 3rd and 4th Will. IV. cap. 97, § 19, may refund, in money, the amount of spoiled stamps. They are also authorized to repay the amount of stamps for which the possessor has no immediate use, if applied for within three months after purchase. In both cases the per-centage allowed by law on the purchase is deducted.

STAMPING DEEDS AFTER BEING SIGNED.

Beyond Twelve Months.—The deed will only be stamped on payment of the whole duty, or the deficiency of duty remaining payable on it, and a penalty of £10; and if the duty or deficiency exceed £10, then, in addition to the duty and penalty, there shall be paid interest on the duty or deficiency at the rate of 5 per cent. from the date or first signing of the deed; but such interest shall not exceed the amount of the duty or deficiency of duty.

Within Twelve Months.—If the deed be brought to the Commissioners of Inland Revenue within twelve months after the first signing or executing, it may be stamped without payment of the penalty, or on payment of a portion thereof, provided it be proved that the deed was not duly stamped previously to being signed, by accident, mistake, inadvertency, or urgent necessity, and without any wilful design to evade or delay the payment of duty (18 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 12).

Abroad.—If the deed be executed abroad, it may be stamped without penalty, within two calendar months from being received in the kingdom, upon proof of the facts (18 and 14 Vict. c. 97, § 13).

Adhesive Stamps.—Where adhesive stamp may be affixed to any instrument, an officer of Inland Revenue, authorized by the Commissioners, may affix and cancel the adhesive stamp. The instrument shall thereupon be deemed sufficiently stamped. But this is not to apply to instruments not allowed to be stamped after being signed, or issued, nor to instruments after the expiration of the period limited for stamping them. The penalty required to be paid on stamping of the instrument is not affected by this provision (24 and 25 Vict. c. 91, § 82).

[Instruments to have stamps impressed are received at the Solicitor's office, Inland Revenue Office, Edinburgh, to be stamped, if within two months of the first date (the Solicitor may in certain circumstances receive them within two months of the last date), on payment of the duty; if beyond that date, on payment of the duty and penalty. Persons applying, will be furnished with a schedule, which, after being filled up, is to be presented, with the instrument, at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, between 10 and 12 o'clock, on Mondays and Wednesdays. The duty to be impressed is to be inserted by the applicant before being presented at the Solicitor's office; and is to be paid with the penalty, if any, to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby. As to stamping agreements and charter-parties (which are received at the Cashier's Office, No. 8, Lobby, between 10 and 1 o'clock, from Monday to Friday, and on Saturdays between 10 and 12). See Notes under these heads.]

DOUBTS AS TO THE SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

The opinion of the Commissioners of Inland Revenue as to the duty with which a deed, previously stamped or otherwise, is chargeable, may be obtained on the deed being presented, and a fee of 10s. paid. The duty or insufficient duty which the Commissioners may assess, and the penalty, if any, being paid, they stamp the deed with the duty so paid, and thereupon, and also in case of the deed being previously sufficiently stamped, impress the deed with a particular stamp for the purpose. The deed shall then be received in evidence notwithstanding any objection to it as insufficiently stamped. The provision does not apply to bonds or mortgages for unlimited amounts, nor to instruments after being signed, prohibited from being stamped. On the stamp duties assessed being paid, and 40s. for costs being deposited, the opinion of the Commissioners may be appealed against to the Court of Exchequer in Scotland, if the deed has been presented for the opinion of the Commissioners at their office in Edinburgh; to the Court of Exchequer at Westminster, if the deed has been presented at London; to the Court of Exchequer in Ireland, if the deed has been presented in Dublin. (18 and 14 Vict. c. 97, §§ 14, 15; 28 and 29 Vict. c. 96, § 22.) The Commissioners may also adjudge on deeds not liable to any duty; and if duty is assessed, the party may appeal. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 18.)

[Instruments are received for adjudication at the Solicitor's Office, Inland Revenue Office, Edinburgh, on the same conditions as to duty and penalty as instruments to be stamped merely. The sum of 10s. for the adjudication stamp is first to be paid to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby. Then the schedule (the duty to be impressed not being inserted), the instrument after execution, and a copy of it, written on foolscap paper, omitting the bounding description of lands, &c., and having appended to it a table giving the substance of the provisions, particularly dates and sums, and a reference to the page of the copy on which each commences, are to be left at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, on Mondays and Wednesdays, between 10 and 12 o'clock. Between 10 and 12 o'clock on Thursday following, a person, who can give explanation, must call on the chief clerk of the Solicitor's Department, No. 6; and he should be prepared to pay the proper duty, and penalty, if any, to the Cashier, No. 3, Lobby.]

DUPLICATES OR COUNTERPARTS.

Duplicates or counterparts of instruments requiring to be impressed with the denoting stamp to render them valid, may be lodged at the Solicitor's Office, No. 5, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh, between 10 and 12 o'clock on Monday and Wednesday. A transmission of them is made once a week to the Head Office. The principal instrument, as well as the duplicate, must be lodged, and both must appear to be properly stamped, otherwise they will not be transmitted.
